

What have been some of your greatest challenges & how have you overcome them?

As an OEM Procurement manager for mobile computing -- to ramp up OEM business and be responsible for a partner's overall performance on cost, quality and delivery.

As a CFO of the IBM joint venture -- to ensure we balance investment with cost cutting, the investment on IT infrastructure and core skills to support growth and promote innovation in the organization and to improve productivity and efficiency

Describe how you have balanced your career and personal life. Were there any corporate or professional programs that helped you advance both personally and professionally? Is there anything you wish you had known "then" or could have done differently?

Take assignments that I like doing and have fun doing them. [I think it's important to] spend sometime doing things you like doing outside work. I like hiking. I hike with family and friends often. Take vacations.

Are there further experiences or insight that you would like to share?

Be a good team player.

Be with people who are positive.

Have belief in yourself.

Take risk and prepare to get up when you fall.
