+ In the US, request may be sent to express@us.ibm.com. ++ In the US, there is limited support available for Usage/Known Defect on technology levels lower than TL8.

* In the US, there is limited support available for Usage/Known Defect on technology levels lower than TL10.

** An upgrade to the most recent Service Pack (SP) may be required for problem resolution. Current service packs are documented at the fix central website at <http://www.ibm.com/support/fixcentral/>

***The Technology Level (TL) service extensions are for New Defect support only. Usage/Known defect support for the Technology Levels is covered under a current AIX operating system SWMA agreement while the product is generally available. See the IBM AIX Operating System Service Strategy Details and Best Practices document for a detailed discussion of Technology Levels.
